

Employment Opportunity

18/08/2021

Position Title: Early Years Teacher

Start Date: September 6th, 2021

General Description

KIS International School is currently looking for an enthusiastic, qualified, and experienced Early Years Teacher to work collaboratively in a play-based, Reggio Emilia-inspired, PYP team teaching environment. Position available September 6th, 2021.

Due to the current Covid-19 situation, we are looking for applicants in Bangkok, Thailand, or in the neighboring vicinity.

Requirements

- Early Years/Primary Teaching Qualifications to degree level minimum (B.Ed.)
- Early Years teaching experience
- Native/Near-native English Speaker
- Experience with programme planning, authentic assessment, and curriculum development
- Familiarity with play-based inquiry teaching and learning
- Familiarity with the Reggio Emilia principles
- Interest and experiences with cultural diversity
- Able to actively participate in team teaching, implementation, and collaborative planning
- Involvement in curriculum, programme, and whole school development
- Participant in the KIS School Community
- Professional Attitude
- Ability to live overseas and experience different cultures
- Experience with the International Baccalaureate Primary Years programme (IB PYP) is an asset but not essential

Contact Information

If interested please email CV and photo to June van den Bos, Primary Principal, KIS International School as soon as possible at june.va@kis.ac.th and recruitment@kis.ac.th.

Positions will be removed when filled.

As an International CIS accredited IB world school we have aligned ourselves with the recommendations of the International Task Force on Child Protection, we hold ourselves to a high standard of effective recruiting practices with specific attention to child protection.